MORAGA ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT, MARY-JANE MULLER, RETIRES

Mary Jane Muller had been with the Town for over eight and a half years, supporting the Administration Office. On Town Council meeting nights, she operated the audio-visual controls to livestream and record the meetings. She was always the first to volunteer to help other departments. She had stated that her favorite thing is the people in the Town offices – her co-workers, that every department helps each other out. Mary Jane is definitely being missed by everyone! "Mary-Jane was a ray of sunshine in the Town Offices," stated Mayor Renata Sos. "She was always ready to help, go above and beyond the call of duty, and pitch in - with a smile and a cheerful disposition. I appreciated her dedication to the people of this town and her wry sense of humor. I will miss her and wish her all the best in retirement."

MAYOR SOS HOSTS SCOUT PACK 505

Mayor Renata Sos had the pleasure of hosting Scout Pack 505, their leader Brad Beal, and the scouts' parents and family members, at the Town Council chambers on Friday, March 24th. The scouts tried their hand at public speaking from the dais, participated in an active Q&A with the Mayor, and toured the Town offices. The scouts were attentive, respectful, and asked lots of great questions.

WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR ARTS & CULTURE IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY?

What is the future of Contra Costa County's arts and cultural landscape? As part of the county's efforts to develop an Arts and Culture Strategic Plan, a survey is available to residents during April to gather community feedback. The county contracted with Arts Orange County as the project manager to lead the arts and culture planning process. The goal is to guide an arts and cultural planning effort through an inclusive community engagement process that recognizes and respects the geographic and demographic diversity of the county, county officials said in a news release. The process also includes an inventory of the county's arts and cultural assets, including organizations, venues, and public art. The survey is open until April 30 at this link. A Spanish-language version of the survey is available here.

GOODBYE TO INTERIM TOWN MANAGER, BRIAN DOLAN

Brian Dolan, Interim Town Manager since the beginning of January, has parted ways with the Town of Moraga to make way for Moraga's new Town Manager, Scott Mitnick. Town Council, Staff, and the community thank Brian for all of the leadership he's provided the Town over the past 3 months. We will miss his knowledge and humor, and hope he enjoys retirement!

DO YOUR TREES PRODUCE MORE FRUIT THAN YOU CAN USE?

Contra Costa Fruit Rescue, a local non-profit, will harvest fresh backyard fruit for free and donate them to various local charities to help those in need. Since January of 2023 they have rescued over 12,000 pounds of backyard fruit. Volunteers harvest fruit all year long, currently citrus trees, followed by stone fruit (plums, apricots, peaches), then fall fruits like pear and apple. You can also join them on a harvest. It's a great activity for the whole family. Learn more about volunteer opportunities and how to register to share your excess fruit at: www.forestr.org/fruit-rescue/.
