RECENT TOWN COUNCIL ACTIONS ON JANUARY 26, 2022

TOWN COUNCIL DRAFT GOALS FOR 2022

The Town Council discussed Mayor Sos and Vice Mayor Woehleke's proposed goals, added two new goals, and directed staff to bring the revised goals to the February 9, 2022 meeting for adoption. The revised Moraga Town Council 2022 Goals and Priorities include the following 16 goals: fiscal sustainability; update of the Housing Element, General Plan and Rezone (including Bollinger Canyon); completion of the Canyon Road Bridge project; implementation of the 2022 Pavement Rehabilitation Program; implementation of the Storm Drain maintenance program and capital projects; allocation of ARPA funds to the highest priorities; quality public safety; enhancement of parks, open space and recreation; identification of uses for Palos Colorados funds; traffic safety; community outreach; implementation of sustainability initiatives; diversity and inclusion throughout the Town; enhancement of Moraga's business climate; collaboration with Saint Mary's College; and participation in a community service day.

NEW CLASSIFICATION FOR SENIOR ACCOUNTANT

The Town Council evaluated the need to upgrade the Accountant position to Senior Accountant to more accurately reflect the responsibilities of the position and assist the Town in attracting and retaining a qualified candidate. The Town's Administrative Services Department staffing levels and classifications were compared to other similar jurisdictions, as was the Accountant salary and the proposed salary for a Senior Accountant. View the staff report. The Council adopted the Senior Accountant job description and updated the Town's salary schedule to include the Senior Accountant position at a salary of 20% above the Accountant position.

TOWN COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS FOR 2022

The Town Council formally adopted the proposed list of Town Council appointments to various Ad Hoc and Standing Committees, Commissions and Boards, as well as Town representatives to various local/county/state agencies.
